

Meal Pricing

The Superintendent/designee shall implement, in keeping with state and federal requirements, a process to protect the confidentiality of information concerning students as required by law.

Only District employees and contractors designated by the Superintendent/designee and representatives of agencies directly connected with the administration or enforcement of the District's School Nutrition Program shall have access to individual student eligibility information without parental consent. A list of designated District employees and contractors by position shall be maintained at the school and in the Central Office.

FRINGE BENEFIT MEALS

In accordance with applicable state and federal regulations, fringe benefit meals shall be available at no cost to employees who are fully paid from school nutrition program funds or who perform a direct service on a regular basis for the program.
